

The AJE Job Distribution Network

Where do my jobs go?

The AJE job distribution network encompasses a wide range of job boards, niche diversity sites, one-stop career centers and community-based organizations. Your AJE solution determines which of these outlets your jobs are distributed to.

Overview of our job distribution network:

AJE's Website Exchanges

- > AJE Website

State Job Board Distribution

(for OFCCP Compliance Customers only)

If you are a compliance customer your jobs are placed on the state job boards and sent to the appropriate state contacts as required by the OFCCP.

- > Jobs are posted to individual state job boards.
- > AJE compliance customers have a dedicated compliance representative who manages state job posting accounts including credential management.

One-Stop Centers and Community Based Organizations

- > 7,500+ Local Career and Community Organizations – your jobs reach local veteran and disabled reps (LVER/DVOPs), career counselors, business reps and minority advocates working directly with jobseekers.
- > Includes daily email and daily job feed to the appropriate job landing pages AJE created for each of these local organizations.
- > Customers can log outreach activities and view upcoming career events via AJE's dashboard.

Disability Websites

America's Job Exchange partners with two job boards operated by disABLEDperson, Inc., a 501 (c) 3 Public Charity whose mission is to reduce the unemployment rate of individuals and veterans with disabilities.

- > JOFDAV.com
Job Opportunities for Disabled Veterans (JOFDAV) is the premier site helping Disabled American Veterans find jobs.
- > DisABLEDperson.com
Leading job board for people with disabilities who are seeking employment opportunities.

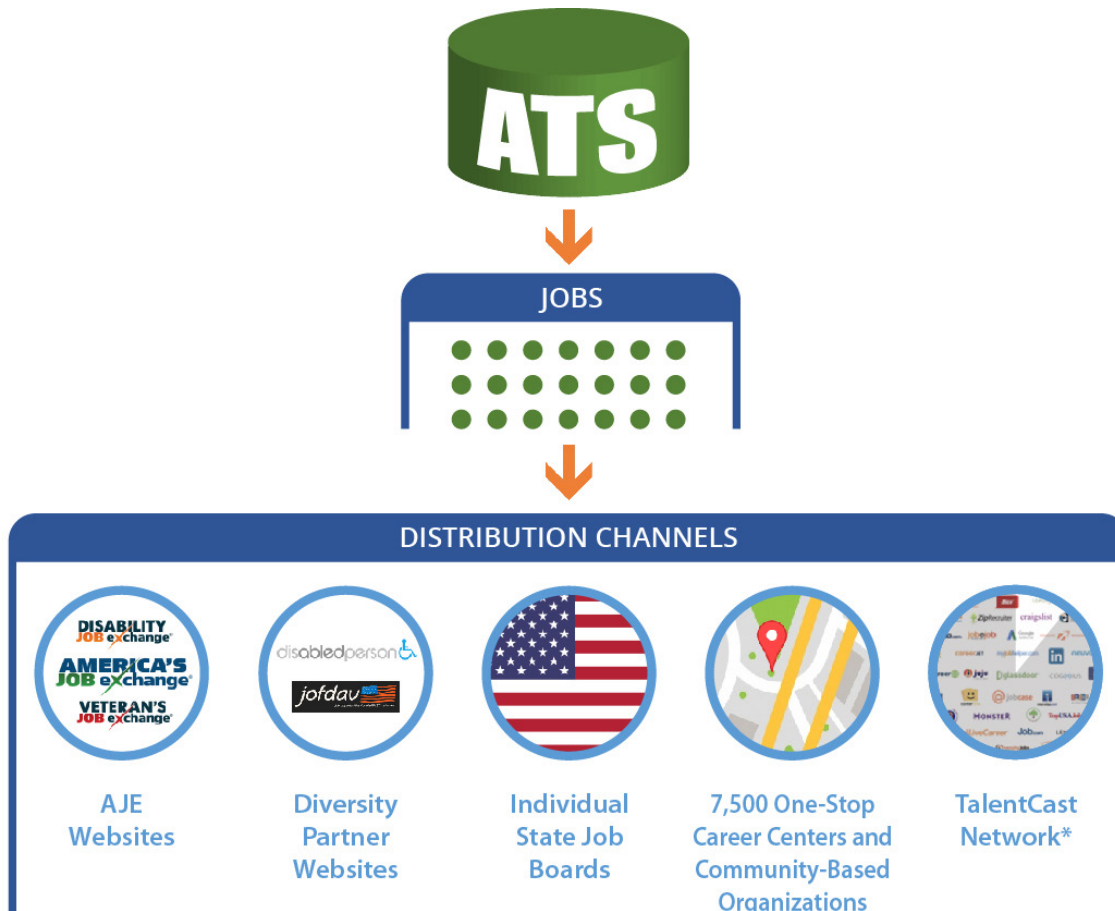

TalentCast - Enhanced Job Promotion*

AJE allocates a nominal baseline job advertising spend to provide a boost in traffic to your recent job openings.

- Sites include mix of job boards, targeted niche sites and diversity sites.

* TalentCast Premium is available as an upgrade to provide a significant additional boost in traffic to all of your jobs. AJE can provide you with the optimal budget allocation based on the number of open jobs you have and where they're located. You can purchase this service separately by contacting your AJE representative.

job distribution through the TalentCast Network is not fixed and depends on multiple variables including total job distribution flowing through the network at any given time, your AJE solution and/or whether you have dedicated additional budget to promote your jobs through this channel.*
